Academic Excellence in English Language Acquisition Program

Erin Soliven

The ELAP (English Language Acquisition Program) award for academic excellence goes to Erin Soliven. Erin is very thoughtful in her work and ensures that it is the best quality that she can produce. She participated in two debates in English class and excelled in researching her topic and presenting arguments working with her team. She strives to learn more every day increasing her skills in English. Erin exhibits a positive attitude with her peers modeling hard work, diligence, and academic responsibility. We anticipate more quality performance and effort from Erin as she continues to improve her competency in English.
