

KODIAK HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

EST. 1969

The Kodiak Hospital Auxiliary and the Alaska Medical Employee Association are proud to announce this year's scholarships:

- 1. KHA/AMEA Scholarship: $1500
- 2. KHA/AMEA Scholarship: $1500
- 3. Providence Kodiak Island Medical Center Scholarship: $1500
- 4. Margaret Hall Memorial Scholarship: $2000

The Margaret Hall Memorial Scholarship was created in 2021 to honor a very loyal and active member of the Kodiak Hospital Auxiliary (KHA). Margaret was an educator in the school district for many years and volunteered her time in various activities in the Kodiak Community. She served as the KHA president for several years and acted as the liaison between the PKIMC administration and KHA. Margaret worked closely with the PKIMC Care Center administration in the planning and development of the Chiniak Bay Elder House.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Candidates must be Kodiak residents who are or shall be pursuing studies in a health field at an accredited college or university. Graduating high school seniors, college or university students, as well as those seeking continuing education are all welcome to apply.
